HEBREWS 11:1

FAMILY DEVOTIONAL

It Is Finished

Have you ever since someone who is alone or scared? Maybe they had been left out of a activity or nobody seemed to be talking to them. Imagine there is a person who is sitting by themselves at lunch, what should you do?

1. Invite them to sit with you.
2. Eat your lunch with them.
3. Ask them to play a game with you after lunch.
4. Help them to meet your friends.
5. All of the above.

That's right! To do all of the above is to really care for them, because they are alone at lunch and probably feel like they do not matter. They really need someone to come and tell them they do matter, and nobody is better for the job then you!

When you invite others to spend time with you, you are showing them that they matter. The Bible tells us that everyone matters and it is important that we tell people these things:

- Everyone was made in God's image
- God loves everyone, no matter what
- Jesus died for them

If our friends really matter to us, then we can talk to them about Jesus. If Jesus is important to us then we need to tell others about Him, and let them know that He loves them too. It is important to reach out and tell others about Jesus because that is the right thing to do. Jesus tells us to do it.

Look at what Bible says in Psalm 139:14:

I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made.

What happens when you put "We" in the blank spaces?

_____ praise you because _____are fearfully and wonderfully made

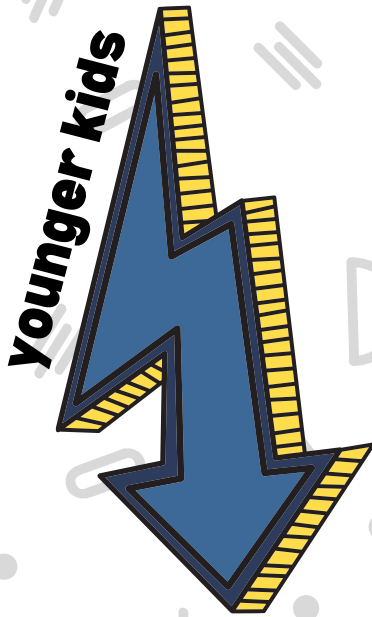

So, if we think that everyone matters then it is our mission to help them have a relationship with Jesus by telling them about Him. Jesus cares for everyone and if we want to care for others we need to help reach out to them.

Who are some people that you could tell about Jesus this week?

- 2.

Everyone is made by God and so they all matter and we need to see everyone as God's creation. When we see them as God's creation we will want them to be apart of God's family and have a relationship with Jesus.
